FORMER PRES. PASTOR HILL

Many of the friends of Rev. W. W. Gordon who was formerly pastor of the United Presbyterian Church here had the pleasure of meeting him while he visited in the community last week. An informal reception was given him in the Church Friday afternoon. The seven years since he left here have been spent as pastor of a congregation at Viola, Kan.

While he has stood the work in the field very well, he still likes to get back into irrigation territory.
